

Fathering After Separation

Online via Zoom

Being separated does not mean you are any less important to or needed by your children.

This session, held in a male-friendly environment, will help you develop parenting skills that are responsive to your children's needs as they find their way through the family separation and to assist you to find helpful ways to stay in contact with your children.

In this workshop we will discuss:

- What children experience in the separation and what they need from their dads
- Developing a functional and parent-focused relationship with the mother of your children
- Managing conflict with your former partner constructively
- Styles of co-parenting
- Practical ways to maintain a positive and rewarding relationship with your children
